Independent concert promotion · ochami.com

No noise around the music. Just the work it takes for a good night to happen.

about

ochami is an independent concert promoter. We work directly with artists and their teams — managers, agents, tour managers — and take care of the shows from first offer to the last load-out.

We prefer fewer, better shows: the right room, an honest ticket price, a local audience that actually cares. Calm, precise, on time.
